

2 March 1956

OGC Has Reviewed

		05)//
	ATTENTION	25X1
	SUBJECT:	Travel Order FE-756-56 dum is in confirmation of our telephone convergation of 24 February and previous convergations on this subject. Since is both an employee and the wife of an employee, the possibility of her advance return as a dependent presents itself. We understand that you now wish to bring her into Washington for an extended period of MIX and that, therefore, there is no necessity for considering the advance return provisions.
	2. There is no legal objection to the issuance of this travel order provided that two corrections are made. There is no authority for granting subject home leave at this time. See 600 epinion re home leave dated 1 August 1955. Consequently, the purpose should be sta	ted as TDY, ammal leave. Since subject is purpose should be star being returned to the	ted as TDY, ansmal leave. Since subject is United States as an employee, it is inappropurpose should be stated being returned to the printe and confusing of Agency regulations	ted as TDY, annual leave. Since subject is United States as an employee, it is inappro- to make any reference to those provisions concerning the advance return of dependents.
	purpose should be stated being returned to the printe and confusing of Agency regulations Consequently, the phresident consequently, the phresident consequently.	ted as TDY, annual leave. Since subject is United States as an employee, it is inappro- to make any reference to those provisions concerning the advance return of dependents. ase in the special provisions paragraph purpose should be stated being returned to the printe and confusing of Agency regulations Consequently, the phreament in connect.	ted as TDY, annual leave. Since subject is United States as an employee, it is inappro- to make any reference to those provisions concerning the advance return of dependents.
	purpose should be stated being returned to the printe and confusing of Agency regulations Consequently, the phresident consequently, the phresident consequently.	ted as TDY, annual leave. Since subject is United States as an employee, it is inappro- to make any reference to those provisions concerning the advance return of dependents. ase in the special provisions paragraph
	purpose should be stated being returned to the printe and confusing of Agency regulations Consequently, the phreament in connect.	ted as TDY, annual leave. Since subject is United States as an employee, it is inappro- to make any reference to those provisions concerning the advance return of dependents. ase in the special provisions paragraph
	purpose should be stated being returned to the printe and confusing of Agency regulations Consequently, the phreament in connect.	ted as TDY, annual leave. Since subject is United States as an employee, it is inappro- to make any reference to those provisions concerning the advance return of dependents. ase in the special provisions paragraph
	purpose should be stated being returned to the printe and confusing of Agency regulations Consequently, the phreament in connect.	ted as TDY, annual leave. Since subject is United States as an employee, it is inapproto make any reference to those provisions concerning the advance return of dependents. ase in the special provisions paragraph ion with advance return -
	purpose should be stated being returned to the printe and confusing of Agency regulations Consequently, the phreament in connect.	ted as MDY, annual leave. Since subject is United States as an employee, it is inapproto make any reference to those provisions concerning the advance return of dependents. ase in the special provisions paragraph ion with advance return - purpose should be stated being returned to the priate and confusing of Agency regulations. Consequently, the phrecent consecutive in connect should be stricken.	United States as an employee, it is inapproto make any reference to those provisions concerning the advance return of dependents. ase in the special provisions paragraph ion with advance return -
	purpose should be stated being returned to the printe and confusing of Agency regulations Consequently, the phreament in connect.	United States as an employee, it is inapproto make any reference to those provisions concerning the advance return of dependents. ase in the special provisions paragraph ion with advance return -

1 - Subject
1 - Signer
1 - OGC Chrono